Worship Notes

Scripture Readings for February 4-5

FIRST READING: Isaiah 58:1-9a [9b-12]

Shortly after the return of Israel from exile in Babylon, the people were troubled by the ineffectiveness of their fasts. God reminds them that outward observance is no substitute for genuine fasting that results in acts of justice, such as feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, and clothing the naked.

¹Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. ²Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. ³"Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. ⁴Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. ⁵Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD? ⁶Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? ⁷Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? ⁸Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. ^{9a}Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. [^{9b}If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, ¹⁰if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. ¹¹The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

¹²Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.]

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12 [13-16]

Though people such as the Corinthians are enamored with human philosophy and wisdom, Paul continuously presents God's hidden wisdom which is Jesus Christ crucified. True spiritual maturity involves judging ourselves and others in light of God's revelation in the cross.

¹When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. ²For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. ³And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. ⁴My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God. ⁶Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. ⁷But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. ⁸None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him"—¹⁰these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. ¹¹For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. ¹²Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God. [¹³And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual. ¹⁴Those who are unspiritual do not receive the gifts of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to them, and they are unable to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵Those who are spiritual discern all things, and they are themselves subject to no one else's scrutiny. ¹⁶"For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.]

GOSPEL: Matthew 5:13-20

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus encourages his followers to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, doing good works and keeping God's commandments.

[Jesus said:] ¹³"You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. ¹⁴You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. ¹⁷Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. ¹⁸For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter will pass from the law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Sharing the Good News!

Thank You from the Colorado National Guard

We just received and opened the two care packages from St. Philip Lutheran Church. Thank you so much for the thoughts and prayers!

The items in the care packages are perfect! The jerky and dried fruit were handed out to each platoon. The movies will be great for our movie nights. We have a Clif bar addict so those went to him! Gum is always a popular item and the jelly beans and red sticks are the commander's favorite. We also were in need of AA batteries. So you guys hit a home run!

Thank you again – what a blessing! Please extend our sincere gratitude from TF Berserker and the men and women of the Colorado Army National Guard for the generosity and thoughtfulness of those back home that support us. It is not forgotten! God bless!

Best regards,
CH Jeff Bell
Task Force Chaplain
Task Force Berserker
3rd Battalion, 157th Field Artillery

Thank You

Thank you to all who have prayed, sent me cards, and wished me well. I am truly blessed to have such loving friends. I really appreciate your concerns for me. God bless you all.

Sr. High Youth Survey

Every couple of years as new youth enter into high school and older youth graduate from high school we have to reevaluate Sr. High Youth Group as schedules and interests change. Pastor Brad and the Sr. High Youth Leadership Team are looking at how we can reach more of our Sr. High Youth, so we have created a survey for all of our Sr. High Youth to fill out. We would like you to be honest because we want youth group and youth events to be what you want them to be. Please respond to Pastor Brad's email at bdoty@stphilip-co.org or copy and paste this link into your web browser to fill out the online survey: <http://www.stphilip-co.org/youth-survey/>.

Sr. High Youth Group

Sr. high youth group for all youth in 9th grade through 12th grade is on! Sr. high youth group is a place for youth to come, be themselves, have fun and learn about God. We invite and encourage you to bring your friends for this time of fun, fellowship, Bible study, games, service, and much more. The format for youth group is to meet at St. Philip twice a week from 7:00-8:30pm, have an off-site fun event once a month, and to do a service project once a month. Contact Pr. Brad for more information, or with questions. Please see the schedule below for the next youth group events:

Evangelism & Global Outreach

Note Card Sale in Support of Seeds of South Sudan

Arok Garang, founder of Seeds of South Sudan, is familiar to the St. Philip community. Last year he spoke during the education hour about our mission to educate, empower, and equip children surviving the genocide in what is now South Sudan.

One way that you can help the mission of Seeds of South Sudan (SOSS), is by purchasing note cards. Kent Denver student Kohl Terry has personally created note cards with five original animal pictures for SOSS. 100% of the proceeds go to supporting the needs of the 65 orphans who are in the program in Kenya. Cards are $10. Sue Counterman and Angela Seep both have cards for purchase. Also, please look for a table in the Narthex between services where you can pick up the cards.

You can find out more about SOSS at our website, www.seedsofsouthsudan.org, or by contacting Sue Counterman. Thank you for supporting our students.

ELCA Good Gifts – Not Too Late!

It's never too late to give a Good Gift. Giving the gift of a chick or cow or a mosquito net is always welcome to those around the world who lack the basics of enough food and clean water. You can find the ELCA Good Gifts catalog on the table under the World Hunger bulletin board or go online to ELCA World Hunger.

Family Life Ministry

St. Philip Book Club

The St. Philip Book Club meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 6:30pm in the youth room. Our next meeting will be Tuesday, February 14, Valentine's Day, and what better book to discuss but The Improbability of Love by Hannah Rothschild! A synopsis of the book is below. We hope you will join us for what is sure to be a lively discussion! All are welcome and light refreshments will be served. For more information about the book club, please contact Sue Riecks at susanmartinriecks@gmail.com or 303.979.4491.

"Unlucky in love (and most other aspects of her life), aspiring chef Annie McDee is shopping for a birthday present for her new crush when she spies a dusty painting in the corner of a London junk shop. Struck by its elegant (if somewhat grimy) beauty, she buys it ... never imagining the life-changing adventure about to unfold! For Annie has unwittingly recovered The Improbability of Love, a long-lost Rococo masterpiece so coveted by art dealers, private collectors, and world-famous museums that they will pay any price – even commit murder – to possess it. A delightful caper lush with colorful characters, The Improbability of Love is by turns a romance, a mystery, a family saga, and a satirical send-up of the art world all swirled together into one page-turning novel."

Church Families in Need – Take Them A Meal

If you know of a member who may appreciate having meals brought to them, please call Karen Rossi at 720.935.3021 (cell). Karen will contact the person/family, and set it up with them on the administrative side so their name will appear on the website. They will be included in the next week's SPIN list so others may sign up as well. Please be sure to leave a voicemail for Karen – she checks her messages often. Thank you for your support as we move forward in our Caring ministry for our beloved members.

Theater and Theology – "Two Degrees"

Our next play will be the world premiere of Two Degrees. The smallest changes can lead to the biggest impact, and no one knows that better than Emma, a scientist studying climate change in Greenland. Still grappling with the unexpected death of her husband, she is invited to the nation's capital to share her findings at a Senate hearing that could define her career and her cause. But if she can't overcome her tumultuous inner struggle, her dedication and sacrifices may not be enough to make the difference in the world that she's always wanted.

This performance is Tuesday, March 7 at 6:30pm in the Jones Theater. After the play, the audience is invited to stay for a discussion led by Pastor Dan Bollman, a retired Lutheran pastor. Tickets are $35 each (make checks payable to St. Philip; please write Theater & Theology on the memo line). Sign up at the Welcome Center kiosk by February 14. Questions? Please contact Nancy Oelz at nancyoelz@gmail.com.
