Scripture Readings for June 25-26, 2016

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 19:15-16, 19-21

In the story preceding today's reading, the prophet Elijah flees for his life to the security of God's mountain. There the Lord reveals to Elijah that there are still other faithful people in Israel and commissions him to anoint new leaders, including his own successor, Elisha.

¹⁵Then the LORD said to [Elijah,] "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. ¹⁶Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. ¹⁹So he set out from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. ²⁰He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?" ²¹He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

SECOND READING: Galatians 5:1, 13-25

For Paul, the freedom Christ gives is not permission to do whatever we want. It is the invitation to be what we could not be otherwise. The power and guidance of Christ's Holy Spirit produce a different kind of life, one marked by the fruit of this Holy Spirit.

¹For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

¹³For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. ¹⁴For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁵If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

¹⁶Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, ²¹envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²²By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, ²³gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. ²⁴And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. ²⁵If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

GOSPEL: Luke 9:51-62

Jesus is unwavering in his commitment to his mission in Jerusalem and will not be swayed by pettiness. In a series of striking cases in point, he calls his disciples to a similar single-mindedness.

⁵¹When the days drew near for [Jesus] to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. ⁵²And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; ⁵³but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. ⁵⁴When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" ⁵⁵But he turned and rebuked them. ⁵⁶Then they went on to another village. ⁵⁷As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." ⁵⁹To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." ⁶⁰But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." ⁶¹Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." ⁶²Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Outside Clean Up Day – Thank You!

Almost 20 people showed up this last Saturday to help clean up the grounds around St. Philip. Although it was a very hot day, these wonderful people came and got a lot of work done: Linda Goodnough, the entire Keller family (Jim, Melissa, Dillon, Will and Isaac), Bill Colbenson, Dick Rock, Michael Stevermer, Larry Edwards, Jerry Mydlach, Don Urben, Gaylen and Carolyn Rapp, Pr. Brad (and Lucas!), Tim Youngren, and John Phillips. They cleaned out the islands, pulled weeds, sprayed Round-Up everywhere, swept the debris from around the perimeter of the parking lot, edged the sidewalk area, cleaned out the gaga pit and trimmed bushes. Linda Goodnough got here very early to set up a wonderful assortment of refreshments and beverages, and then worked alongside the others in beautifying the property. A special thanks goes out to John Breed—although he couldn't join us on Saturday, he is here every single week, spending hours trimming the perimeter of the grassy area. Again, I hope the community of St. Philip knows how blessed they are to have you and your donated time and talents. I appreciate you more than words can say. Thank you!

Property Team – Storage Garage is Done!

The storage garage that was begun nearly a year ago is now complete. It was dedicated on Sunday, June 19th. Special thanks goes to the following people: John Miller; thank you for letting us use your license and for helping us get through the maze of paperwork with Jefferson County. John Schutt—thank you for your work with our concrete vendor. Without your negotiating skills, this project would not have been completed. John Phillips—your leadership and guidance throughout the actual construction was instrumental. What would we have done without you? And, a super special thanks goes out to all the worker bees—Jerry Mydlach who spent every waking moment here, John Phillips, Larry Edwards, Tom Schnickel, Roger Bracken, Tim Youngren, Dick Rock, Bill Colbenson, Ray Peterson, Michael Stevermer, and Gaylen Rapp. Gentlemen, you are a treasure and I hope the rest of the St. Philip community knows how lucky they are to have you. And to the parishioners who bought at our silent auction last year which mostly funded this shed—you are the best. Thank you all!

(Example: one team ushers in April and again in October.) Each team should have 4 members, which allows for individual flexibility. If you are interested in learning more, please contact Charlie Petersen at 303.948.7953 or petersens@q.com.

Check-in to see where all flat Jesus has been, share with others where you've seen Jesus, and remember that Jesus is always with you!

Evangelism & Global Outreach Ministry

Lutheran Disaster Response

DOUBLE YOUR GIFT TO LUTHERAN DISASTER RESPONSE. It's impossible not to know that we are in the season of disasters: floods, tornados, droughts, earthquakes, fires, waves of refugees...the list goes on and on. But right now, Lutheran Disaster Response is in the season of response. Thanks to a generous donor, your gift to Lutheran Disaster Response will be matched until $100,000 is reached. Your gift provides help and hope in the lives of disaster survivors. You can donate online or put a check in the envelopes provided in the back of the pews.

Thank You from Soles for Souls

St. Philip received a lovely thank you letter from the Soles for Souls ministry, expressing their gratitude for our recent donations of used shoes. Please stop by the Evangelism & Global Outreach ministry bulletin board to read the entire letter. Thank you, St. Philip, for your continuing support of this worthwhile ministry.

Campbell Soup Label Program is Ending

The Campbell Soup Label program will be discontinued on July 31, 2016. The Navajo Evangelical Lutheran Mission and School receives labels from all over the country, and many more are mailed directly to the program headquarters earmarked for the mission's benefit. Over the years, the piles of carefully clipped labels have added up to at least 8 new vehicles, along with tables, chairs, school supplies, and much, much more.

Labels received and recorded prior to July 31 can still count toward valuable resources for the mission and school. Please advise your label collectors so that everything can be sent in by July 1, 2016. If you have any questions, contact Pastor Edward Busch @ 626.799.0961.

The Campbell Soup Label program has been a godsend to Navajo Lutheran Mission. The benefits to the Navajo people are more than can be numbered. Please accept our sincere gratitude for the many dedicated individuals and congregations who have participated. P.S. You can still send the "box tops for education" from General Mills to Solheim Lutheran Home or the Mission.

Family Life Ministry

St. Philip Book Club

The St. Philip Book Club is open to all who enjoy reading interesting literature. The Book Club meets on the 2nd Tuesday of each month at the church at 6:30pm. Light refreshments are usually served.

The book selected by the club as the July reading has two titles: the Canadian version is titled The Book of Negroes; the American version is titled Someone Knows My Name. The author is Lawrence Hill.

The August book selection is: The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Frye by Rachel Joyce. We hope you will join us for some great discussions!

Meals for Members Program

We are beginning a program to sign up for meals for our members who may need some help during a difficult period of time, or even for 1 day. We will be using a website called TakeThemAMeal.com to help us plan and schedule meals. Each week in the SPIN we will have a list of people who would like meals brought in. When you check your email, the SPIN will have a list of person/persons that need help with a meal. The process for signing up is as follows:

1. Read your weekly SPIN, see the names listed in the Family Life Take Them A Meal section.
2. Go to website, www.TakeThemAMeal.com.
3. Enter person's name when prompted: example: Smith, Mary
4. Enter the password. Password is the person's last name: Smith
5. Sign up for whatever you can do.

If you know of a member who may appreciate having meals brought to them, but whose name isn't listed, please call Karen Rossi at 720.935.3021 (cell). Karen will contact the person/family, and set it up with them on the administrative side so their name will appear on the website. They will be included in the next week's SPIN list so others may sign up as well. Please be sure to leave a voicemail for Karen – she checks her messages often. Thank you for your support as we move forward in our Caring ministry for our beloved members.

Ruth Circle is on Summer Break

Ruth Circle will not meet in July or August, but will resume their meetings in September. Contact Flo Figge at 303.932.6197 with questions.

Thrivent Financial is giving away a $20 bonus to qualified Thrivent members who have never directed their Thrivent Choice Dollars to an organization before or to members who never qualified to give Thrivent Choice dollars before. This is a one-time bonus and the offer expires August 1, 2016. Choice Dollars can be distributed by going onto the Thrivent web page, signing in and then following the menu for Choice Dollars or they can call Bryan Vinz at 303.220.8614 for assistance.

Silent Auction is Ending Sunday!

The Silent Auction is coming to an end. Sunday, June 26th at 11:00am is the final day to place your bids. If you have not yet been able to view our auction items, please do so sometime throughout this week or weekend. All profits will be used to buy new tables for our Fellowship Hall and possibly some new chairs—at the very least we will have the cloth chairs professionally cleaned. We hope you have found something awesome for you personally, or as gifts for others.

We are going to try something a little different this year regarding item pickup. We ask that you be at the church immediately following the second service between 11:00am and 2:00pm on Sunday to pick up your items. We need to clear out the room so Vacation Bible School/Fine Arts Academy can start preparing for their fun-filled week. We will have lots of people to help “check you out” and get you on your way quickly. Please bring cash or checks.

Thank you all very much for your support in this endeavor. We don't have money in our annual budget for special building projects like those listed above (budget money is reserved for the ministries) so your support helps in so many ways.

Say Cheese!

Hard to believe, but it's been 3 years since we last published a pictorial directory. Plans are now underway for the newest edition of our church pictorial directory. We are working again with Bettinger Photography to produce our new directory. Please be thinking about when you and your family will want to have your photo taken! More details will be forthcoming about the photo shoots here at St. Philip, but effective NOW you can go to the Bettinger studio and get that family group picture taken in a lovely outdoor setting. You can even bring your pets along – all are welcome! The photo session is FREE, and by having your photograph taken, you qualify for a free 5x7 photo and a new directory. Contact Bettinger at 303.400.6023 and mention St. Philip Lutheran Church. Questions? Contact the church office at 303.979.4491, and ask for Linda or Sue.

Clearing Out Old Banners

The Altar Guild ladies have been cleaning and have decided to donate some of our older woven banners. However, before these beautiful banners are given away, Altar Guild would like some assistance in identifying whether any of them belong to someone here or have special meaning to someone here at St. Philip. The banners will be donated by the end of this month. Please contact Barb Donaho for more information about the banners (303.794.1796/gedbad59@comcast.net).

Ken Caryl Concerts

The Musicians of St Philip Lutheran Church are pleased to introduce “Ken Caryl Concerts”, an exciting new concert series featuring a wide variety of musical talents from our church family and the surrounding community. We will offer 3-4 concerts per year and all ages are welcome. The concerts will include sacred and secular music of all genres. It is our hope to entertain, educate, inspire, and extend a warm welcome to the surrounding community with these events. Please save the following dates for our 2016 concerts:

Sunday, 7/17/16, 2:30 pm – Columbine Music Teachers Association (CMTA) 25th Anniversary Celebration Concert.
