Performers include our Sanctuary Choir, Ringing Brass, Bryan Chuan, Kristen Celusniak, Beth and Michael Clough, Angy Lyslo, Josh Keltner, and more!

Men's Softball

It's time to get ready for St. Philip Men's Softball! Games start the evening of Sunday, May 22 and run for 10 weeks Sunday evenings between 6-8pm. All games are played at Clement Park. The cost is about $50 per player (depending on how many sign up) and players must be 18 or older. Contact Charlie Petersen if you are interested (petersens1095@gmail.com).

St. Philip Community Garden Update

The St. Philip Community Garden is in its 8th season of supporting the Sheridan Food Bank. With the help of several Eagle Scout projects last year, we expanded the garden and irrigation system and added a fence around the perimeter. In addition to growing up to 100 pounds of produce for donation each week, we offer several community plots for personal use.

With the one plot available, we would like to invite the children of St. Philip to participate in planting pumpkins on Sunday, June 12 after services. We'd also like to invite church members to come out to visit the garden and take a little tour.

On May 29, the garden will be hosting the coffee cart and additional details about pumpkin planting, volunteer opportunities, and other needs will be shared. In addition, extra tomato plants grown by Ana Tolentino will be available. For more information, contact Ana at 303.949.6088 or atolenti@aol.com.

Join Scouts!

Boys and girls ages 11-17 are invited to join Scouts BSA Troop 554. We are beginning our active summer season full of camping, hiking, water sports, and more! Scouting teaches leadership and "adulting" skills, increases positive social development, and provides a fun alternative to screen time. We are actively recruiting now. Please join us on Tuesday nights at 7pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Thank You

Dear St. Philip family,

Thank you for the many prayers, cards, emails, meals and transportation that you have given to us these past several weeks during our health issues. My spine surgery was successful on April 25 and I am thankful to be recovering at home. Glenn is doing better, but still has some pending appointments with specialists. We are blessed to have such a caring circle of Christian friends.

In Christ,

Glenn and Louanne Isernhagen
